Rochester Area Habitat for Humanity (RAHH)
Donor Privacy Policy
Approved by the Board of Directors, 10/24/2012

RAHH values your donation, and commits to using it in a responsible manner. As such, we make the following promises to you regarding your support:

- We will not sell or rent your name or donation information to any other organization.
- Credit or debit card numbers are destroyed upon successful processing of the charge. If you give online, RAHH is never in possession of your credit or debit card number.
- We will only disclose your donation information as required by law.
- Sponsorship-related donation information may be shared for awareness purposes if explicitly permitted to by the donor.

Information regarding current and prospective donors is collected through a variety of sources including updates from previous fundraising mail pieces, construction job site sign-in sheets, volunteer orientation information forms, listings provided by Habitat for Humanity International of their donors residing within our service area, and those who have registered on our web site to receive periodic E-mail updates from Rochester Area Habitat for Humanity.

We'll be respectful of your time with our correspondence, but if you decide that don't want to hear from us anymore, just let us know by calling or e-mailing the RAHH office (office@rahh.org). If you have any other specific solicitation preferences (e.g. just send a letter once a year), please let us know. We will work in good faith to honor all requests.

Thank you for your support of Rochester Area Habitat for Humanity!
